

Paper Development Workshop

14th May 2023, 1pm – 3pm, Institute of International Management,
National Cheng Kung University, Tainan, Taiwan

Facilitators

Prof. Felix Arndt, Associate Editor, British Journal of Management

Prof. Yi-Ying Chang, Editorial Board Member, British Journal of Management

Prof. Chieh-Peng Lin, Editorial Board Member, British Journal of Management

Associate Prof. and Director Wei-Shiun Chang, National Cheng Kung University

Associate Prof. Yu-Yu Chang, National Cheng Kung University

The British Journal of Management (BJM) provides a valuable outlet for research and scholarship on management-oriented themes and topics. It publishes articles of a multi-disciplinary and interdisciplinary nature as well as theoretical and empirical research from within traditional disciplines and managerial functions, based on any appropriate methodology, and selected contributions to the development of research methods. With contributions from around the globe, the journal includes articles across the full range of business and management disciplines. Articles that are reviews and/or theorise on the basis of systematic reviews should be directed to our sister journal, the International Journal of Management Reviews (IJMR).

This workshop is designed to help authors aspiring to publish in the British Journal of Management to develop and enhance their draft work. Participation in the workshop does not guarantee progress towards publication but will provide authors with advice and guidance to help them give improve their work and increase its chances.

Application and Participation Process
