

(Applicable to students admitted from the 2019 academic year onwards)

Regulations Governing the Conferral of the Dean's Honorary Award of the College of Management at National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University

Passed at the 6th administrative directors meeting of the College of Management for academic year 2020 on April 12, 2021

- Article 1 The College of Management (hereinafter the College) devises these incentive regulations in an effort to encourage undergraduate students to diligently study the College's compulsory common courses to build a foundation of learning in the field of management.
- Article 2 For those undergraduate students in the College who were ranked among the top five in their classes in terms of academic performance for four consecutive semesters between the first and second years, the dean of the College will award a certificate of honor and a cash prize of NT$2,000 in recognition of their achievements. The award funds are donated by generous alumni and the actual period of donation will depend on the availability of continued support from alumni in the year of the award.
- Article 3 A list of award winners will be submitted by each department to the department head for confirmation and to the College dean for approval during the first semester in the undergraduate students' third year of study.
- Article 4 These Regulations shall come into operation upon approval by the College's administrative directors meeting, and the same applies to any subsequent amendments hereto.
